POLICY & PROCEDURES TEACHING STAFF INDUCTION TRAINING

Area: Teaching	POLICY NO: 118/2020	Document Owner: Principal
Title: Teaching staff induction	Issued on:	Revised on:	Pages: 3

Teachers can transform lives. Any teacher should adapt to the new circumstances to perform his/her best. Christ College is committed to provide ample training to newly appointed teachers. This document covers the policies and procedures adopted to enable newly appointed teaching staff to feel at home in the institution and deliver their best.

POLICY

1.   The teaching staff induction training policy is to equip the teaching staff of Christ College to achieve standards that will enable them to deliver their duties as teachers of Christ College effectively.

2.   This training policy reflects the institutional belief in the development of all teaching staff, both full and part time, and permanent and temporary, regardless of age, gender, disability, race, religion or sexual orientation.

3.   The policy is in support of the wider College values, particularly those relating to higher standard of teaching learning process.

4.   Teaching staff new to Christ College can be helped to settle in and perform effectively, through staff training which continues upto the probation period.

5.   Newly appointed staff should attend the two-day faculty induction programme organized by the College Management & IQAC.

6.   Also, the newly appointed staff member should complete the following training modules within three weeks of his/her appointment.

7.   The induction training checklist is to be submitted to the Principal through Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC).

8.   Newly appointed teaching staff should participate in ICT trainings conducted by IQAC of Christ College

9.   Apart from the basic induction programme teachers have freedom to attend Faculty Development programmes, Orientation courses and Refresher courses conducted by external agencies. Teachers participating in such programmes should inform the Principal through HOD/Course coordinator at least three weeks prior to the programme. The certificates of the training programmes should be submitted to the College Administrative Office (Teaching section).
