Suggestions from Alumni

- Should include social issues in studies. It will help students in diversifying their perspectives and think logically and critically to the situations.
- Semester exams and internals are not the end of the world. Try to create a vibrant academic environment
- More real life and practical level exposure would be appreciated and more current Indian scenario concerning the subject would be good, the books available could cover a wider area in the subject.
- Include more practical learning options
- Provide internship options
- More materials for reference need to be made available.
- Should make improvements in experimental and practical learning
- Update the text books. Also reduce unwanted items in syllabus
- Course should make sure that the content we study for three years are beneficial not only for academics purpose but also for better development of our skills.
- Also focus on including things related to making an individual to survive in this competitive world.
