7.1.11 - 90

NSS units observed World water day by introducing a new project for birds named 'Venal Kulir'. For this volunteers were set up 'thanneerkkudam' with the aim of quenching the thirst of birds in this summer. And it was placed on the trees by filling water in those pots. This project was successfully completed under the guidance of program officers and the leaders.

