

As part of the agricultural activities, we have started the farming activities in our Poly House. It's a daily process, every evening volunteers come and water it.

