

Thavanish volunteers visited The House of Providence, the old age home situated at Irinjalakkuda. The main objective of the programme since it was the first, was to make the volunteer team including the first year students aware and lead them to the kindness by caring and respecting the aged.

