Introduction

Jayaraj Annapackiam College for Women, a synonym for sterling service in Higher Education of women and a household name in Periyakulam Educational District was established on 5th July, 1971. It has been managed by the sisters of St. Anne of Tiruchirapalli. Imparting Higher Education to the rural women, i.e., economically, educationally, socially and culturally backward. It was a glorious dream jointly dreamt and fulfilled by the efforts of Mother Lucy Crescentia Mary, the then Mother General of St. Anne's Congregation, Tiruchirapalli, and the philanthropist of the illustrious family of Mr. Jayaraj Chellathurai. Besides the unique distinction as the first autonomous college in Theni district, Jayaraj Annapackiam College for Women, enjoys the prestigious status of first grade college, among the Colleges affiliated to Mother Teresa Women's University, Kodaikanal.
