

SHELLEY DAY

8th July 2022

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

PG Department of English celebrated the 200th death anniversary of Percy Bysshe Shelley who was one of the most renowned romantic poets of English literature. A few programmes were arranged for the audience. Students actively participated in the program till the end of it. First of all, an introduction about the author was given to the audience in order to have a good idea about the poet and it was informative as it contained more information about the author. Then the students recited the well-known poems of PB Shelley. Then a discussion was held regarding the poem 'Ozymandias'. Then the students prepared a crossword puzzle for the teachers and students. The questions were based on the life and the poems of P.B Shelley

PG Department of English

Organizes

Adieu

On behalf of the 200th death anniversary of

PERCY BYSSHE SHELLEY

(1792-1822)

Date: 8th July 2022

Time: 1.30 pm

Venue : Room no.177

Events

- 1.Introduction about the Author
- 2.Poem Recitation
- 3.A talk on ozymandias
- 4.Crossword puzzle

All are Welcome

PHOTOS

