

TIRANGA 2.3

Celebrating the Spirit of Patriotism, Unity, and Cultural Diversity.

Independence Day 2022, Christ college NCC Unit

On the auspicious occasion of India's Independence Day, Christ College NCC Unit organized the much- anticipated "Tiranga 2.3" event, celebrating the spirit of patriotism, unity, and cultural diversity. The event took place on the 14th of August 2023, bringing together students, faculty, and staff in a day filled with enthusiasm and festivity. One of the main attractions of Tiranga 2.3 was the intellectually stimulating quiz competition. Teams from various colleges participated in intercollegiate quiz competition, which was conducted at the Chavara seminar hall from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. The rhythmic beat of the dance competition echoed through the campus which conveys a theme of patriotism. Inter collegiate Dance competition was conducted at the college auditorium from 3 pm to 5 pm. There was also a band display by NCC cadets near the auditorium. At the end of the program, we distributed cash prize certificates and medals to all the first and second-prize winners of the quiz competition and dance competition. Prize distribution was done by the vice principal professor Sheeba Varghese and Dr. Xavier Joseph. Tiranga 2.3 was a great success initiated by ANO Lt. Dr. Franco T Francis and CSUO Ashlin K Asok with the help of all the cadets.

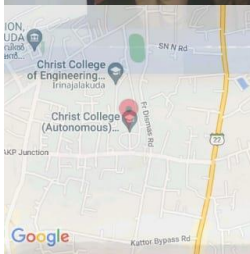

Tiranga 2.3" successfully achieved its aim of fostering a deep sense of patriotism and unity among participants and attend
