Introduction:

---

The purpose of this report is to provide an overview of the code of conduct sessions conducted at Christ College Autonomous Irinjalakuda. These sessions play a vital role in promoting a positive campus culture and fostering a respectful learning environment.

Christ College Autonomous Irinjalakuda is renowned for its commitment to academic excellence and holistic development of students. Recognizing the importance of maintaining high standards of conduct, the college regularly organizes sessions to educate students about the code of conduct.

Session Overview:

Under the guidance of the college principal, Rev Fr. Dr. Jolly Andrews CMI, and the Dean of Students and Faculty Affairs, Dr. Anilkumar N, several sessions were conducted to discuss the code of conduct. These sessions aimed to familiarize students with the expectations, values, and regulations governing behaviour within the college community. Dr Anilkumar took classes for over 2000 students, in different time and sessions.

Content Covered:

The sessions covered various aspects of the code of conduct, including:

1. Respect for oneself and others.
2. Academic integrity and honesty.
3. Attendance and punctuality.
4. Use of college facilities and resources.
5. Policies related to harassment, discrimination, and bullying.
6. Consequences of violating the code of conduct.

Impact and Feedback:

The sessions had a significant impact on students' understanding of the code of conduct, as evidenced by their active participation and engagement. Students appreciated the opportunity to clarify doubts and gain insights into the importance of upholding ethical standards.

Feedback received from students was overwhelmingly positive, with many expressing gratitude for the informative and interactive nature of the sessions. Some students suggested incorporating real-life case studies or role-playing exercises to enhance learning and retention.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the code of conduct sessions at Christ College Autonomous Irinjalakuda have been instrumental in instilling a sense of responsibility and accountability among students. By reinforcing the values of integrity, respect, and fairness, these sessions contribute to the overall development of individuals and the college community as a whole.
