WEBINAR SERIES 2•

Report on Community development through KESS Model

The webinar session was held on 23rd October through Google meet and an average 55 members participated. The session started at 11am with a welcome speech by Sreelakshmi (first year msw student) The chief guest for the webinar was Fr. Dr. Joy Vattoly CMI. The felicitation for the webinar was given by Mrs Rosemary(HOD). Both first year bsw and msw students attended the session with their respective class teachers Mrs Asha cj(Bsw class coordinator) and Mr Ajeesh k george (Msw class coordinator)

Fr Joy explained the structure and working model of KESS. Kuriakose elias service society was founded in 1974 and has a general body of 110 members including 9 administrative members and meetings are held 4 times every year. Today KESS has 400 NGO's and covers 1000's of projects all over India mainly in 6 states identifying the needs of society and seeking help from people for making projects.

After the informative session there was a good interactive session as well. in which students actively asked their questions and father cleared all their doubts.

The one hour webinar session came to an end with a vote of thanks delivered by Ayswarya KA (first year bsw student)
