Orientation on "Importance of Ethics and Values in Higher Education"

6th November 2023

Internal Quality Assurance Cell

The Provincial Orientation on "Importance of Ethics and Values in Higher Education" was organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) with the aim of fostering a deeper understanding of the crucial role ethics and values play in the realm of higher education. The event brought together distinguished speakers, teaching, and non-teaching members to deliberate on the significance of instilling ethical principles and values in academic settings.

Dr. Shinto K G, the coordinator of IQAC welcomed the gathering and shared a insightful profile of the Chief Guest.

Principal Jolly Andrews CMI shared valuable perspectives on embedding ethical values into the institutional culture. His address underscored the pivotal role of leadership in promoting a culture of integrity, accountability, and social responsibility among students and faculty members.

Rev Dr. Jose Nandhikkara graced the event as the Chief Guest, bringing with him a wealth of experience and insights into the ethical dimensions of education. His keynote address shed light on the moral imperatives that should guide educational institutions in nurturing responsible and ethical professionals. He also urged the faculty members and Non-Teaching Staff to have a passion towards the Profession.

Outcome:

The Provincial Orientation on "Importance of Ethics and Values in Higher Education" served as a platform for meaningful dialogue and collaboration among educators, administrators, and stakeholders committed to advancing ethical principles in academia. The insights shared and recommendations proposed during the event are poised to inform institutional practices and policies aimed at fostering a culture of integrity, excellence, and social responsibility in higher education.

The organizers express their gratitude to all the speakers, participants, and collaborators who contributed to the success of the orientation.
