Report

The workshop on Student Centric Pedagogical Approaches in Higher Education was organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Christ College (Autonomous), Irinjalakuda, on February 19th, 2024. The program commenced at 9:30 AM in the Chavara Seminar Hall. The event was inaugurated by the esteemed Principal, Rev. Dr. Jolly Andrews CMI, who graced the occasion with his presence. Dr. Shinto K.G., the IQAC Coordinator, delivered a warm and welcoming speech, extending greetings to all attendees and expressing gratitude for their participation in the workshop and also welcomed the resource person for workshop Dr Josheena Jose, HOD, Department of Commerce – Aided & Joint Coordinator of IQAC, Dr Arun Balakrishnan, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce - Aided and Ms. Greeni K I, Programme Coordinator, Department of Chemistry – Unaided.

Dr Arun Balakrishnan delivered session on participating and experiencing learning method The workshop began by highlighting the limitations of traditional, teacher-centered methods. It then introduced student-centered pedagogy, emphasizing its potential to foster deeper understanding, critical thinking, and engagement.

Session two was handled by Dr Josheena Jose the session was based on Problem solving methodologies PBL involves students working collaboratively on extended projects that address real-world problems. This methodology requires students to define the problem, research potential solutions, develop a plan, implement their ideas, and reflect on their outcomes. PBL fosters critical thinking, communication skills, collaboration, and problem-solving through a hands-on approach.

After lunch break the session three was handled by Ms. Greeni K I about Other Innovative Teaching Methods. The Flipped classroom approach, gamified learning experiences.

The session was aimed to equip educators with strategies and techniques to shift their teaching approach towards a more student-centered model and Dr. Shinto K.G., the IQAC Coordinator thanked the resource person for enlightening the minds of facilitators.
