CADENCE 2024- the grand reading fest conducted by the PG Department of English on 20/06/24 (Thursday) set a huge benchmark on the multifaceted cadences of reading and thinking/thought. The session hosted by Miss Athira KU saw a remarkable footfall from the animated English enthusiasts of Christ College. What better beginning than one with a prayer rendered by Miss Karthika M. Following the prayer, our HOD Dr. Hemalatha P, a high priest of wisdom, composure and serenity addressed the session with a Welcome Speech of her molding. Following this Mr. Praveen AA did the honor of delivering the felicitation. We had as our guests Miss Anju Mariya Babu and Mr. Muthu Kumar, alumni of the Dept, achievers of literary merit and also two charming personalities of their own accord. Their sphere of critical thinking, creativity and voluminous output made its impression upon the audience without fail. They had their forte in poetry and its various nuances and they delivered the same in a scintillating vigor to an audience beaming and curious. The triangular theory of love and its larger implications for love poetry gave the audience insight and enlightenment. In addition to his book of poetry under discussion, Mr. Muthukumar tweaked the curiosity of the audience by delving into the forays of “Fantasy” with a particular emphasis on the friendship and love between the leading trio in the ‘Harry Potter’ series. The talk included an interactive Q&A session where the participants raised their queries to which the presenters provided the answers. Personalized advice was a bonus for the participants which the presenters gave away in cheer and wonder. Dr Hemalatha P appreciated Miss Anju Mariya Babu and Mr. Muthu Kumar for their achievements in the sphere of poetic composition. They received her token of love with an earnest bow of gratitude. Mr. Saran Govind wrapped up the enormous and energetic session with a vote of thanks (“parting is such sweet sorrow”) conclusive yet optimistic.
