Conditional Offer for MBA Global, with Optional Placement in 1

Date: 21/05/2024

Applicant ID: 2295740

Dear Reem Sheikha,

It's great news - we'd like to make you an offer to study with us here at Portsmouth.

At a glance

Course: MBA Global, with Optional Placement

Offer: Conditional Offer

Start date: 23/09/2024

Point of entry: Year 1

Conditions: English language proficiency at a minimum of IELTS Band 6.5 with no component score below 6.0 or an equivalent English language qualification, pass credibility interview, completion of UKVI Student Route Eligibility Assessment, and receipt of a tuition fee deposit or acceptable sponsor letter provided, provide two satisfactory references dated within the last two years. Provision of the official Degree transcripts and certificate confirming final CGPA

As a condition of your offer you are required to pay a deposit in the amount of £7800. This payment will be deducted from your tuition fee balance at registration. If you made a payment previously, you only have to pay the additional amount to meet the requirement.

Application deadlines for international students

You will have to meet all offer conditions by the application deadlines.

More about the conditions of your offer

Do you need to improve your English before starting your degree? Or would you like a focused opportunity to practise your language skills? Apply for one of our Pre-Sessional English (PSE) language courses.

All our PSE programmes are accredited by the British Association of Lecturers in English for Academic Purposes (BALEAP) and designed for university use. You will get excellent support and advice from experienced academic staff, our International Student Adviser Team and our Learning Development Tutors.

Our PSE courses are designed to help you develop the academic skills you need to progress to a university foundation, undergraduate or postgraduate programme. You will study for 25 hours a week from Monday to Friday in classes of no more than 14 students. You will have the same tutor throughout your programme.

If you have applied for a course at The University of Portsmouth but have not yet fully met the English language requirement for your academic course, you may be eligible to study a pre-sessional course in order to meet those requirements.

For more information on the courses available, and the minimum IELTS score required, please visit our visit our English language courses page.

You can also find out more on our English language requirements page.

Accepting your place

Congratulations - we've taken a close look at your application and we'd like to make you an offer. We hope you'll accept and be on your way to join the next generation of world-leading innovators in our postgrad community.

Accepting your offer of study is easy. Just log into your Applicant View and let us know that you want to join our seafront city community.

Need more information? We're here to help give you the answers you need before making your decision. Just contact our friendly team.

We'll be keeping in touch with you over the coming months to ensure you're kept informed at every stage of your application. Please keep an eye out for our emails.

Fees and funding

Find the tuition fees for your course on our profile pages, and then discover the different ways you can pay your tuition.

All offers made by University of Portsmouth to international, EU and EEA students are subject to a deposit. Please read section 3, 4 and 11 of the Tuition Fee Policy for more information. Alternatively, you may provide a letter from your financial sponsor (this cannot be a family member or friend).

You can make your deposit payment, or provide details of your financial sponsorship, via the My Finance section within your Applicant View. From there you will be able to make an online payment of your deposit (if applicable) or upload sponsorship information.

We recommend that you meet the offer conditions and make the deposit payment as soon as possible to confirm your offer in order for you to have sufficient time to apply for a visa and arrange your travel.

All offers made by the University of Portsmouth are subject to checks for criminal convictions, tuition fee status, regulations for students under 18 years of age, Academic Technology Approval Scheme (ATAS), fraudulent materials, and UKVI regulations.

Tuition fee

Tuition Fee	£18100.00
Tuition Fee w/ Discount(s)	£15600.00*

Please note, the fee displayed will be the tuition fee per year and may be subject to annual increase.

*If you are not eligible for a discount, the figure will remain the same. If you believe that you are eligible for a discount, please contact feeenquiries@port.ac.uk.

tuition fee discounts are only applicable to students who are self funding their studies. Students who are being sponsored by an external organisation such as an employer or embassy will not be eligible for a tuition fee discount. Please refer to the tuition fee discount policy for our discount eligibility criteria.

Please refer to our tuition fee terms & conditions, and tuition fee policy for further information on how tuition fees are charged.

We support you

We are here to support you to achieve your ambitions through your time with us at University. Our new Student Support Services department, working with our academic faculties, provides a comprehensive package of support ranging from financial advice and guidance, pastoral and welfare support through to support for students with disabilities, mental health and wellbeing challenges and care experienced and estranged students.

Fitness to Practise

We are also sharing a Fitness to Practise information document for the attention of applicants applying to study a course with fitness to practise requirements.

What next

Visiting the university

Want to find out more about the University of Portsmouth and why it's the right choice for you? Join us at a virtual or on-campus Open Evenings, meet with our subject specialists and current postgrad students. Or get to know us better by browsing our Postgraduate Virtual Experience. It's a great source of valuable information - from what postgrad study is like and what our students say, to our industry-standard facilities, where you'll live and life outside study.

Important: Home Office (UKVI) restrictions

We reserve the right to make amendments to any offers in order to meet the requirements set by UK Government policies. The Home Office restricts the total time that students may spend in the UK to a maximum of five years for the majority of undergraduate courses.

If you require a visa to study in the UK and you have chosen to study on a part-time course please be aware that the Student Route visa for part-time postgraduate courses does not permit any work and does not permit you to bring dependants.

If you have applied to study a campus-based course, you will receive an invitation from CAS Shield in a separate email. The information collected on CAS Shield will allow us to determine your eligibility to study in the UK under Home Office immigration regulations. The assessment must be completed before your Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) statement is issued, which you will need to support your Student Route Visa application. The questionnaire should be completed within 28 days of this offer email being sent to you.

All offers made by the University of Portsmouth are subject to checks for criminal convictions, tuition fee status, regulations for students under 18 years of age, Academic Technology Approval Scheme (ATAS), fraudulent materials, and UKVI regulations. For more information about studying at University of Portsmouth, please visit the help pages of our website or contact us by sending an email to globaladmissions@port.ac.uk.

Overseas representatives

We have a University representative in various countries that can help you apply for a Student Route Visa and provide you with counselling, conduct standard checks, and liaise with us on your behalf.

Remember to print this email if you visit your country representative, or to include it with any correspondence you have with them so they are aware that we have referred you to them. The representative may apply a small administration fee for assisting with your application. Additional charges may apply to optional visa services. View their contact details on our international students webpages.

Living in Portsmouth

Portsmouth is a fantastic place to live and study - steeped in history but with a modern vibe. You'll find a huge range of affordable student accommodation in our city by sea, all located within easy reach of campus. It will be your home away from home.

For full details on securing halls of residence, private housing or lodgings go to our accommodation pages or email us at student.housing@port.ac.uk.

Your first week

Check our website for up-to-date information on our Welcome and Orientation Programme.

All non-UK students can join the airport pick-up and the International Orientation Programme.

If you have any questions about your visa application, please email student-visa@port.ac.uk.

Terms and Conditions

Offers are made on the understanding that you meet the University's Terms and Conditions.

Student Contract

Please ensure you read the Student Contract carefully. The contract sets out your rights and responsibilities as a student, and outlines the obligations of each party to each other. When you accept an offer to study at the University of Portsmouth, you are also agreeing to abide by the Student Contract.

Here to help

If you need more information before making your decision, please contact us at any time.

We'll also be in touch with you over the coming months with everything you need to know about life at Portsmouth and to keep you informed at every stage of your application.

With best wishes,
