On November 11, victory of the union elections was celebrated by the union with the accompaniment of Shingari Mela.

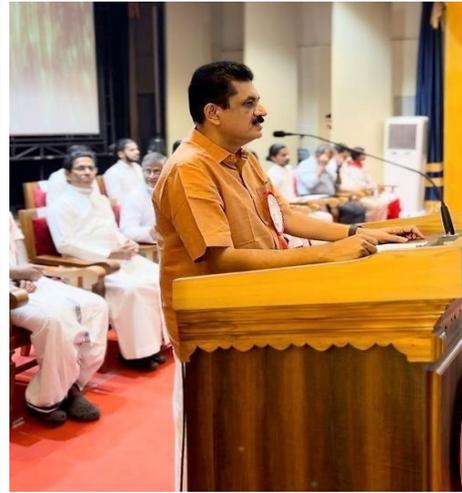

A 'World Cup Fiesta' event was organized on November 24 in connection with the Qatar Football World Cup. The college principal Jolly Andrews CMI inaugurated the fan parade, face painting and winners' prediction competitions in which the students lined up in the jersey of their favorite team on the college ground. In the Fans match competitions, the presence of the students of the Irinjalakuda Prathiksha Bhavan along with our students added to the excellence of the program.

Second Union Parliament meeting was held on December 13th, at Fr. Dr. Jose Thekkan CMI Memorial Seminar Hall. Mr. Karthik P Marar was elected as the Speaker of the Union and Ms. Sneha P.P was elected as the Deputy Speaker by the elected representatives of the elected parliament.

On December 16, the 'LA-SOCIALISTA' College Union officially took charge in the union inauguration ceremony. Pudukkad Constituency MLA Mr. K.K Ramachandran inaugurated the program presided over by the College Principal. Renowned film playback singer Suraj Santhosh was the chief guest. His live performance followed by the performances of 'Kaafi' and 'Eleven KV' music bands were outstanding. The event concluded with the amazing performances by the students and it was well received by the students.

The 'Arang' art venue was a long-standing dream of the students and teachers to provide a place for art to awaken the creative and artistic talents of the students in the college. On February 2nd, Principal Jolly Andrews CMI officiated the inauguration, and the songs of the 'Aahiri' folk group enlivened the stage.

The 'Arang' became the stage for various artistic performances by the students, reminding us that the arenas are also the places where the arts of resistance rise. The concert of the college music band and other artistic performances of the students was held on March 13 as a continuation of the 'Arang'.

There was great cooperation from the students to keep 'Arang' alive with dancing, singing and discussions.

On February 3rd, College Union and the Debate & Literary Club jointly organized the discussion and debate on the topic 'Is the fourth pillar of democracy collapsing?' In this era, when there is concern that the media, which is called the fourth pillar of democracy, is deviating from media ethics, it has been possible to start an exciting debate platform by highlighting the socially responsible thoughts and ideas of the students.

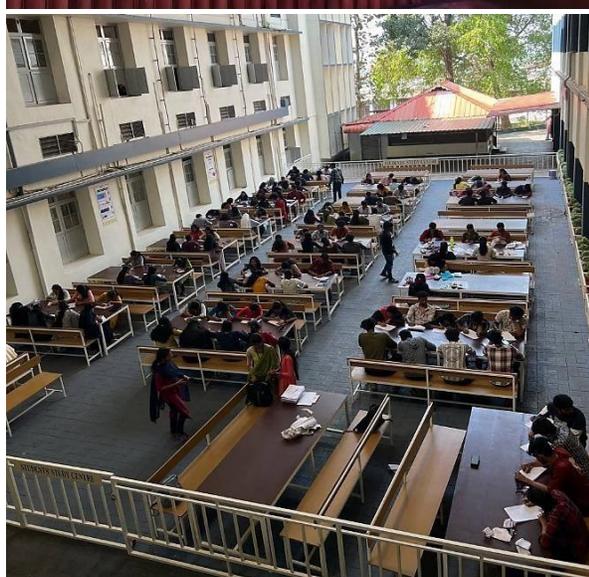

On February 8th, third Union Parliament meeting at held at Saint Chavara Multimedia Hall.

This year's college art festival 'Chilamb' was launched with the slogan that art and creativity are the offspring of change. The 'Kalolsava Vilambara Jadhha' of the students with the various art costumes and the Theyyam which evoke the cultural uniqueness of Kerala, awakened the students to the excitement of arts fest. College Principal Jolly Andrews CMI, Union

Chairperson Ameesha and Fine Arts Secretary Haizel jointly lit the 'Chilamb' at the opening stage which was resounded with musical instruments from Bro-house team.

With three days of off-stage competitions and three days of on-stage competitions, 'Chilamb' was a festival of art beyond being a competition between departments, where art and politics were discussed in eight venues for a week from February 8 to 15. 84 events were conducted. 8 stages were there for the on-stage competitions. Physics Association won the overall championship and Fr. Dr. Jose Thekkan Memmorial ever rolling trophy, Maths Association won the Runners-up trophy and Chemistry Association won the Second Runners-up position.

A biriyani challenge was held on March 6 to provide financial assistance to the parents of three students who had serious health problems to undergo organ transplant surgery and collected Rs.1,48,000. Teachers, non-teachers and students gave full support to the campaign.

Women's Day was celebrated on March 8. Independent Journalist and Theatre Critic Renu Ramnath was the special guest, and on the occasion of Women's Day, she created an open discussion platform on the concepts of female beauty that need to be rewritten. Miss Christ - 'Let Your Attitude Define Your Beauty' competition was organised in connection with women's day. Sandra Manoj, second year chemistry student, won the Miss Christ title in the competition that broke down the standards of female beauty dictated by society.

On March 8, Union organized Holi celebration in the college ground.

From January 31, flagged off the 'Inter Department Sports Fest'. Men's and women's tug-of-war competitions kicked off the excitement of the sports fest among the students. The men's and women's basketball matches were held on February 6 & 7. A penalty shootout competition for girls was organized on February 7. A football match was organized on 25th, 26th and 27th of February.

Sports day was held on March 9 with 15 events in track, jump and throw events. BPED Association became champions by scoring maximum points. BBA Association won the Runners-up trophy.

College Day 'ZIKARON' held on March 17 was also an opportunity for the college to remember its heritage of history, art, love, revolution and creativity. The selfless service and diligence of the Union office-bearers and associated volunteers was evident on the College Day as in every activity since the union came to power. The popular film playback singer Sachin Warrier took the stage by storm with his songs. The various art performances of the students were a highlight of the event.

Our college bagged the overall championship at the Calicut university D-Zone Arts Festival 'Rivera' held from 17th to 21st June with eye-catching performances. After 9 long years, the D-zone championship, which was a long dream of many people, has been brought to our college. It is definitely the result of the united efforts of the union & volunteers, the systematic training of the students and the strong cooperation of all including teachers, staff and management. The hard work of the remarkable union representatives & volunteers and the competitive spirit of the students in the D-Zone arts festival held at Guruvayur Srikrishna College and the trainings conducted for months are the additions of this art crown.

Total 211 students registered in 149 events for Rivera D-zone arts festival for Christ college.
